

Sustainable, interesting forms of village living

Luopioinen region is a domain of various housing concepts. A variety of people is the source of vitality in the village.

The ideas emerge among villagers and are implemented by villagers, and their collaboration partners.

Coop Pöllökartano

Pöllökartano is a co-housing cooperative, that renovated an old mental house into seven apartments and shared spaces.

Better life together.
www.pollokartano.fi

Small houses of ViherKostiala

Ecological housing built with healthy construction and heated by solar energy.

More contents with fewer square meters, more life with close neighbors.

www.viherkostiala.fi

Tiny Ecovillas

Recycled houses with reasonable rent.

Tiny, but perfect close to nature living and village services for young (second age) people.

www.ecovillas.fi

New from old in Torppakylä

Reusing old log frames for a modern house. Sustainable construction solutions; pillar foundation and plastic-free foundation frost protection.

The Best Leader Project 2022 in Finland.

www.torppakyla.yhdistysavain.fi

Latest initiatives

Zero carbon housing area on the island of Vohlisaari.

Eight innovative one-family houses with novel energy, water sources and waste treatment.

Apartment house
for retired (third age) people in the center of the village.

Community living, but own space and freedom.

Community cultural center

- exhibition premises
- auditorium
- craft center
- municipal information office

www.kulttuurimikkola.fi

PÖLLÖKARTANO

The market place is a meeting point for the village